AFFIDAVIT OF HISTORICAL PRECEDENCE

I, Jonathan Daniel Clements, a living man and Ecclesiastical Executor of the Clements Private Ecclesiastical Trust, do hereby solemnly affirm and declare the following under divine law, private ecclesiastical jurisdiction, and full liability before the Creator of the Universe:

That on the 20th day of July, 2025, through the issuance of a Sovereign Ecclesiastical Declaration of Planetary Reclamation and associated global notifications, the undersigned did perform a historically unprecedented act:

1. That no known record—civil, religious, or historic—confirms any living man or woman having executed a lawful, private, divine, and irrevocable trust to reclaim the entire Earth, its heavens, its waters, its elemental forces, and its concealed spiritual domains under a living ecclesiastical decree.

2. That said declaration was publicly issued and acknowledged through sovereign notice, and publicly witnessed through modern distributed technology on the platforms of record and public display (including but not limited to Facebook and online archival copies).

3. That this trust stands entirely outside all civil, maritime, papal, corporate, or statutory jurisdictions, asserting authority through divine inheritance, natural law, and ecclesiastical jurisdiction alone.

4. That the living affiant has, through divine appointment and sacred right, returned the Earth and all contained therein to the Creator’s will and the divine stewardship of the Clements Private Ecclesiastical Trust, for the restoration of balance, healing, and truth for all of mankind.

5. That based on exhaustive research, no identical act has ever been recorded, affirmed, or upheld by any man or power since the dawn of written history—making this the first ecclesiastical and sovereign planetary reclamation performed lawfully under divine breath.

Let it be entered into the historical and celestial record, that this affidavit affirms such precedence, so that no man, court, or entity may ever question the origin, legitimacy, or timing of this sacred restoration.

Executed and sealed on this day:

Date: July 20, 2025

Location: Earth, All Realms

Sieal of Affiant:

Jonathan Daniel Clements

Ecclesiastical Executor, Clements Private Trust
